

The He♥rt of the Entrepreneur

O'Hare Campus
Fall Session 2009

TIME

Tuesday: 6:30 – 9:30

Note: This class meets 5 times for one competence.

COMPETENCES

- A-2-X Can present a view of entrepreneurship as an outlet for creative personal expression.
- H-3-C Can use theories or models of adult growth and development to understand one's own experience.
- F-X: Can effectively evaluate the impact of entrepreneurs on society and individuals from both a personal and financial perspective.

GENERAL COURSE DESCRIPTION

Entrepreneurs are an integral part of a thriving economy yet the aspects of successful entrepreneurship remain a mystery. This course takes a detailed look at the characteristics of successful and unsuccessful entrepreneurs, enabling the students to acquire a personal understanding of what it takes to start a new business venture. This course is interesting, fun and rewarding especially for those interested in starting their own business.

Ed Paulson, Ph.D.

INSTRUCTOR BACKGROUND

Ed Paulson is an experienced business manager, engineer and entrepreneur who holds an MBA. He has written several financial analysis books related to mergers and acquisitions. Ed has over 30 years of industry experience in places like Chicago, Austin, TX and Silicon Valley and has taught for DePaul SNL since 2001. He can be reached by phone at 630-960-3299 or email at author@edpaulson.com.

Find Out If You Are The Entrepreneurial Type

Copyright © 2009 by Ed Paulson. All Rights Reserved.