

TURNING YOUR PASSION INTO A LIVING

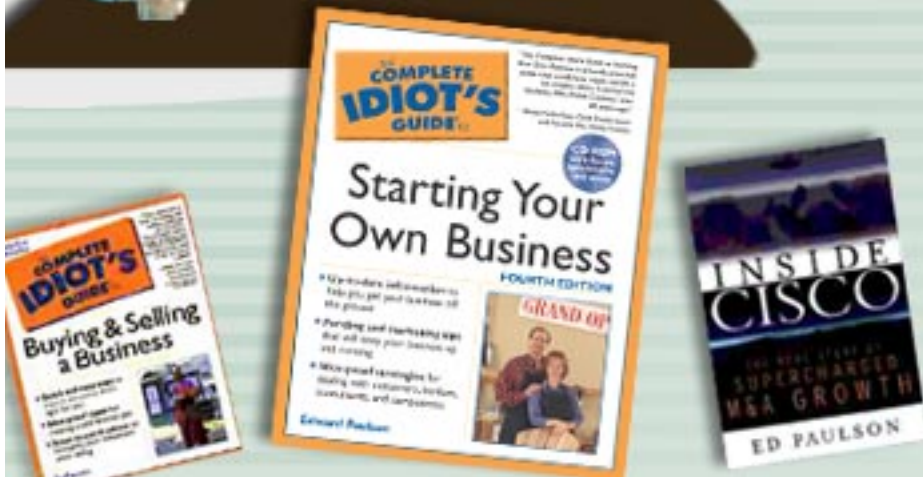

SUCCESSFULLY STARTING YOUR OWN BUSINESS

Join us and best-selling author ...

ED PAULSON ...

... as he shows you the critical steps involved with successfully starting your own business. Ed presents ways for determining the business idea that is right for you, methods for assessing your own entrepreneurial potential and specific steps you can take to make your business ownership dreams a reality.

Your work should be more than something you do to pay your bills. It should also provide you with a sense of satisfaction as both a professional and as a person. There is little more rewarding in life than when your work and your passion align. Spending this time with Ed Paulson will get you started on that "other path" that leads to fulfillment and financial reward. Learn how to turn your passion into a living. Question and answer along with book signing will follow Ed's seminar.
